

FILM SCREENING SERIES

Earthlings

Saturday, January 30

Doors at 2pm, film starts at 2:30pm

Narrated by Academy Award nominee Joaquin Phoenix, Earthlings is the most comprehensive documentary ever produced on the correlation between nature, animals and human economic interests.

"Of all the films I have ever made, this is the one that gets people talking the most," said Phoenix. "For every one person who sees Earthlings, they will tell three."

Fowl Play

Saturday, March 6, 2010

Doors at 2pm, film starts at 2:30pm

Fowl Play takes you on a journey behind the closed doors of some of the largest egg production facilities in the world. A story of hope emerges as footage recorded inside battery cage and other facilities is balanced with personal accounts of the individuals working to protect the often-forgotten victims of the egg industry.

Meat the Truth

Saturday, April 24, 2010

Doors at 3:30pm, film starts at 4:00pm

Presented by Dutch politician Marianne Thieme, Meat the Truth is the very first documentary to address the relationship between livestock farming and climate change.

Vancouver Public Library, Downtown Branch
Alma VanDusen Room (lower level)
350 W. Georgia Street, Vancouver

Image by flickr user Amre Ghiba